Where we rely on consent as a legal basis, you may withdraw consent at any time by contacting us.

Withdrawal of consent shall be without effect to the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

We use cookies to facilitate the use of our website. For detailed information on the cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them, see our cookie policy <https://lauralynn.ie/cookie-policy/>.

5. Do we share your personal data with anyone else?

We may share your personal data with the following parties in connection with our processing of your personal data:

Third party	Reason for sharing data
I.T service provider, including email (Support I.T)	Where there are I.T issues, especially in relation to Vitro, Support I.T require access to the system to resolve those issues.
Cloud service provider	We store our document management system and backups on the cloud and so your personal details will be stored on our secure cloud storage system.
Vitro	We use vitro for our electronic patient records. This allows us to provide individualised care for each child that accesses our service

Health Care Professionals e.g. Consultant, GP, Dentists	In order to provide consistent and accurate care we need to share and receive information with the adults/child's external healthcare providers
External Agencies e.g. HSE, HIQA, State Claims Agency	Under regulatory requirements we are required to share personal data where there are vulnerable adult concerns to HSE as well as completion of anonymised data templates as requested by the HSE in relation to numbers availing of services, service provision and congregated services data- Where incidents occur we are required to report these through the NIMS System to the state claims agency including personal data to whom the incident relates to. Under our HIQA registration we are required to send in 3 day and quarterly notifications to HIQA, and any accompanying reports/investigations we have undertaken.
Banks e.g. AIB Post Office	The service is responsible for managing some of the adult's finances, therefore staff would liaise with their banks and post offices to ensure the adults have access to the necessary services.
Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council Housing Department	All adults in residence have been registered with Dun Laoghaire Rathdown Housing waitlist.
Pharmacy Services	To ensure the delivery of medications.
Other Service Providers e.g. St Michaels House, St John of Gods, CRC, Enable Ireland, EPIC, Resilience Care, TUSLA Child & Family Agency, National Advocacy Services	All our residents attend day services while residing here – ongoing communication with these agencies is essential to ensure safe delivery of care. We link also with other specialised agencies when needed.
Kefron Filestores	Engaged to store archived records of those availing of our services.
Government Departments	We link with various Government Departments in relation to Disability Allowances, Mobility Allowances and Long Stay Charges.
National Research Board	The Health Research Board (HRB) is the lead agency supporting and funding health research in Ireland. The National Intellectual Disability Database (NIDD), was established in 1995, and the National Physical and Sensory Disability Database (NPSDD), was established in 2002. These databases inform decision-making in the planning of specialised health and personal social services for people with intellectual, physical or sensory disabilities.
Specialised Equipment Services	From time to time and when needs arise we engage the services of specialized companies to inspect or repair equipment relating to our residents.

We require all third parties to enter into a data processing agreement with us which complies with our obligations under the GDPR. This agreement requires third parties to have appropriate security systems in place and only to use your personal data on our instructions and in accordance with data protection law.

6. Keeping your personal data secure

We take appropriate security measures against unlawful or unauthorised processing of personal data, and against the accidental loss of, or damage to, personal data. We limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents and other third parties who are required to have access to your personal data and where they have agreed that they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures and technologies to maintain the security of all personal data from the point of collection to the point of destruction. We have procedures in place to deal with actual and suspected data breaches which include an obligation on us to notify the supervisory authority and/or you, the data subject, where legally required to do so.

7. For how long do we keep your personal data?

Your personal data will be deleted when it is no longer reasonably required for the purposes described above or you withdraw your consent (where applicable) and we are not legally required or otherwise permitted to continue storing such data.

Where you ask to be unsubscribed from marketing communications we may keep a record of your email address and the fact that you have unsubscribed to ensure that you are not sent any further emails in the future.

Further details on how long we retain personal data are contained in our retention policy which you can request from us by contacting us.

8. Your data protection rights

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request information about whether we hold personal information about you, and, if so, what that information is and why we are holding/using it.
- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.

- Object to automated decision-making including profiling, that is, not to be the subject of any automated decision-making by us using your personal information or profiling of you.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
- Request transfer of your personal information in an electronic and structured form to you or to another party (commonly known as a right to “data portability”). This enables you to take your data from us in an electronically useable format and to be able to transfer your data to another party in an electronically useable format.

In the event that you wish to make a complaint about how your personal data is being processed by Laura Lynn, or how your complaint has been handled, you have the right to lodge a complaint directly with the supervisory authority who can be contacted as follows:
